

Hedgerows

Unfortunately the Parish Council has received concerns about overgrown hedges in and around the Parish which can hinder the safety of road users including vehicles, walkers and riders. Nesting season is due to start in early March until the end of August making now an ideal time to think about trimming.